REMARKS

The above amendment to the specification merely adds a cross-reference to related applications, and inserts into the specification a paper copy of the sequence listing in which the general information has been updated to reflect accurate information for the instant application.

Applicants have also cancelled claims 1-17 and added new claims 18-51 either to remove multiple dependency or to more particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicants regard as their invention. Of note, claims 40 and 48 are identical except that the former depends from claim 23 and the latter from claim 26; claims 41 and 49 are identical except that the former depends from claim 23 and the latter from claim 26; and claims 42, 50, and 51 are identical except that they depend from claims 18, 23, and 26, respectively. Support for the new claims can be found in the cancelled claims and in the specification. More specifically, the subject matter covered by claims 43-47 is described in the Specification (in particular, Fig. 9). No new matter has been introduced by the amendments.

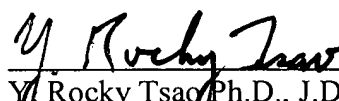

Following entry of this amendment, claims 18-51 will be pending. Applicants ask that all claims be examined in view of the amendment to the claims.
